PRICE ONE CENT.

DIVVER FARCE

Police Justice's Trial Con-

vulses the Court.

They Acted Without Personal Knowledge.

Produce Morris Tekulsky

At Once.

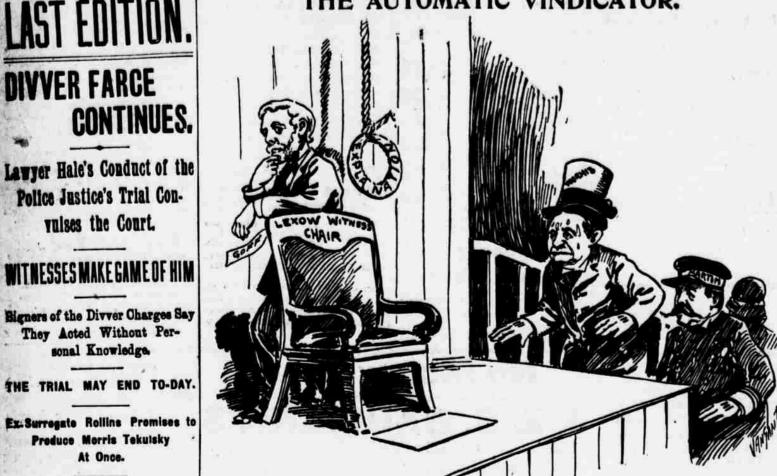

The farcical trial of Police Justice Div

At 10.35 the court was called to order.

ver was continued in the Court of Com

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1894.

THE AUTOMATIC VINDICATOR.

Modelled After Connecticut's Automatic Gallows. Patent Applied for by John W. Goff.

public business.

Clerk James McCabe, of the Harlem ourt, and Hugh Donnelly, of the York-ille Court, gave similar testimony.

Recess was then taken until 2 o'clock.

"I have no funds, if the Court please," and began to call the names of nearly he said, "to carry on this case, and I all on it, but neither Assemblyman Michael Callahan nor any one else an-

"Oh, I'll pay the $4.37," cried ex-Surrogate Rollins, "and let this farce go on."

This staggered Lawyer Hale, and in the midst of it Terence Kenny called out that he was in court, which caused laughter.

Lawyer Hale then told about his futile attempts to serve Tekuisky, and called the latter's bartender. Edward Burroughs, who was present in the saloon hast evening. He questioned Burroughs, but the latter evaded telling where Tekuisky was, or, in fact, anything about him.

Trict-Attorney to aid him.

While Mr. Hale was talking Terry Wenny again entered the court. He was talking Terry wenny a bartender for Tekuisky at the time of the latter's row with Divver, but is not now. He testified that Divver occasionally frequented Tekuisky's saloon. He was a bartender for Tekuisky saloon. He saw him there the day of the alleged assault, but beyond that he knew nothing.

Bartender Burrows was then recalled and questioned, but nothing was brought out. He had seen no fight, only a little "showing match," just as friends might do.

Tekulsky was, or, in fact, anything about him.
Under cross-examination by Mr. Rollins, Burroughs caused a laugh by saying that Mr. Hale had never served Kenny with a subpoens at all, but had instead served it by mistake on a reporter who happened to be in the store. Mr. Hale was tired, but looked more so when the smiling Kenny advanced and said he was willing to be sworn.
"Is that the man you served?" asked Mr. Rollins, derisively.
"No." replied the Brooklyn lawyer, blushing, "It is not."
Kenny at once disappeared in the crowded court-room, and an instant latez when his name was called, he could not be found.
Every one in court roared with laughter, while Lawyer Hale got furious. He said a trick had been played on him. Mr. Rollins replied that Kenny had a right to leave the court-room, as he understood Mr. Hale did not want him.
Finally John Brady, a member of the Tammany Committee of the Second District, took the stand.
He said he knew Divver, and had seen him preside occasionally at district meetings. The lawyer wanted to show that Divver had publicly offered prizes for the biggest vote frawn out in 1836, but the witness knew nothing, and the case began to look like a farce.

TERENCE KENNY.
r, who did not see the Tekulsky-Divver fight.)

The bartender, who did not see the Tekulsky but never shift.)

Denis McEvoy, another member of the same committee, testified that he knew Divver slightly, but never saw him preside at a meeting. He knew nothing against Divver. Mr. Rollins brought out the fact that both witnesses had been subpoensed last evening by Lawyer Hale, who asked no questions whatever. Martin J. Keefe, another member, gave similar testimony. He had heard Divver say on one occasion it was the duty of every member to bring out the largest vote possible. "For what?" asked Mr. Hale, "To bring out a big Democratic vote?" "I presume so." was the reply. "That is what we were there for."

"In a subpoense the subpoense failed to give him the usual half dollar. Henry Campbell, the Vessy street tes merchant, who at one time testified be fore the Grand Jury that Divver had offered prines for a big vote, failed to appear. Lawyer Hale then took a copy of the printed list of Tammanny's General Committee of the Second District that he signed them under a misappre-

L JUSTICE P. DIVVER LEVY. EX-SURROGATE ROLLING
TRIAL OF POLICE JUSTICE PATRICK DIVVER,

Charles J. Auferth, who was Secretary of the Divver Club in 1833, denied that Divver had offered inducements for district captains to get out a big vote. This exhausted all of Mr. Hale's witnesses. One of them he admitted was in an insane asylum. He asked for a postponement in order to suramon Tekulsky and others. postponement in order to summon Te-kulsky and others. Ex-Surrogate Rollins protested against an adjournment. He said that he had there in court three of the men for whom Hale claimed to be acting, and that they knew nothing whatever of the charges. They had simply signed the charges at Hale's request.

CHIEF-JUSTICE LEONARD A. GIEGERICH.
J. P. DALY. HENRY BISCHOFF. ROGER A. PRYOR. JUDGES WHO ARE TRYING P. DIVVER.

ANOTHER FOOTBALL VICTIM.

Hale, he said, had apparently made no preparation. It was simply a "fishing party," and he said the court ought not to have convened "to satisfy this gentleman's pleasure." man's pleasure."

Lawyer Hale insisted that enough testimony had been introduced to substantiate the charges and to warrant the removal of Divver from office. Divver, he said, did not apparently want vindication, as he refused to allow evidence on the green-goods charge.

At the suggestion of Judge Daly, Mr. Hale took the stand and was about to swear of his futile attempts to serve Tekuisky, when Judge Pryor objected. He said as a member of the Bar his word ought to be taken.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 19.—George Young, who played right guard for the Frankford football eleven, and who was injured on Nov. 30 in a game with another local eleven, is dead.

At the time Young was injured he was given the ball to make a run, and was heavily thrown, fumbling the ball, while reaching for it he was accidentally kicked in the head by a runner who was close behind him at the time.

He was taken to his home and grew better, but later an abcess formed at the base of his brain, which resulted in his death. injured on Nov. 30 in a game with an-

FRESH HORRORS IN ARMENIA.

Forty Priests Massacred. BERLIN, Dec. 19.-The Cologne Gazette to-day publishes a letter from Armenia telling of fresh horrors there; including twenty-three villages laid in forty priests massacred. Giolitti Documents to Be Ignored by Committee.

ashes, eleven other villages pillaged and

ROME, Dec. 19.—The Riforma says that the Committee of the Chamber of Deputies to which the Giolitti documents were submitted has decided not to take any further notice of these papers.

$1,000 newand will be paid for information leading to arrest and conviction of the person regarding to arrest and conviction of the person respectable for a false runner regarding the solvency of the dry-ground house of BERNARD TRAYNOR, of Amsterdam ave and 62d st. Joneseu L. ANAME. Commetter at-Law, 134 Nassaug.

hension, in fact by a trick. Lawyer Hale put the paper in his hand, but it was never read to him, nor did he know MANGLED BY HIS DOG.

Fearful Struggle in the Dark with a Huge Newfoundland.

was never read to him, nor did he know its contents.
Charles E. Sprague, another of the signers to the charges, admitted that he knew nothing personally of the allegations. He had made the charges because he believed it his duty to do so. Police Surgeon Charles E. Nammack, Divver's family physician, swore that young Divver, who was ill with pulmonary consumption, went to California in January last, and that Judge Divver accompanied him at his suggestion. He admitted that any other member of the Divver family might have accompanied the sick son as well as his father. Hageman Says the Animal Mistock mit the Brute to Be Shot.

George Hageman, fifty years old, Lloyd street, Flatbush, had an exciting log early this morning, and believes he by the brute.

Hospital suffering from severe, lacerate condition is not serious, the doctors be Hageman is able to leave the hospital. Hageman returned home at 3 o'clock this morning. As he entered the hall the big dog sprang at his throa and tried to bury its teeth in his mas-ter's flesh. Hageman managed to shake himself free, but not until his throat had been badly scratched.

Again the Newfoundland sprang at him. This time it buried its teeth deep into his right cheek, laying the fiesh open to the bone. Hageman tore himself loose and tried to hold the animal. open to the bone. Hageman tore himself loose and tried to hold the animal.

Man and dog struggled about the dark hallway until Hageman was forced to let go of the brute and fell back almos exhausted. With a growl the dog sprang again at its master, and fastened its fangs on his right arm, causing an ugly wound and tearing the coat sleeve into shreds.

Hageman shook the dog off by beating it over the head with his gloved fast, and then hastily retreated through the front door. He ran around to the Flatbush police station and told the story of his struggle to the sergeant at the deak.

Hageman was taken in a patrol wagon to the hospital, and four policemen were ordered to go around and shoot the fog.

"Don't do that." cried Hageman from were ordered to go around and shoot the dog.

"Don't do that," cried Hageman from the cushions in the wagon. "I don't want the dog shot. He is a good watchdog, but I trained him not to let anybody in the house. I will not have such a good dog shot."
Hageman said the attack was due to his own carelessness. The dog, he said, mistook him for a burglar.
Six months ago, Hageman said, the dog attacked him under similar circumstances, but he managed to beat him off.

At the hospital this morning it was said that Hageman was doing nicely.

FOGLIA SAFE IN A CELL.

as confident of acquittal of the terrible crime of which he is suspected.

He still adheres to the story of his wife's death, as related in his letter to "The World," that she died by her own hand, and that he was powerless to prevent it.

hand, and that he was powerless to prevent it.
On the journey from Natchez he talked freely of the tragedy.
Foglia arrived in the city at 10 o'clock last night, and was taken to Head-quarters, where, after the usual formal-ity of taking his pedigree was gone through with, he was locked up, and im-mediately retired.

THE JAPANESE TREATY.

Senate Committee Decides to Report It Favorably.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.-The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, at its meeting to-day, decided to report favor-

Inspectors Subpoenaed for To-Day --- Intermann Admits He Per-

BULLDOZED BY BYRNES

Marrett Says He Was Compelled to Tell All About the Gardner Case.

jured Himself.

ociety for the Prevention of Crime, tesified before the Lexow Committee today, that Supt. Byrnes had compelled him, by threats, to tell all he knew about the Gardner case. Gardner, who was Superintendent of the Society, was accused and convicted of having extorted money from Lillie lifton, for protection from arrest. Marrett said he had never complained of the Superintendent because he feared ne would be arrested on a manufactured charge, which, he said, was the case with Gardner.

Inspectors Williams, McAvoy and 'Ic Laughlin were subpoensed to testify to-day. Williams was the only one to appear and after a consultation he was excused for the day.

Sergt. Taylor, who testified yesterday that he gave the money collected from policemen to Inspector Steers, was re ments made by the ex-Inspector to the effect that Taylor made the allegation brough spite. The sergeant repeated ome of his testimony of yesterday rearding the placing of the money in rawer of Capt. Allaire's desk.

Another day of sensational disclosure n the Senate police investigation was romised this morning, and there were bundant indications that Mr. Goff inlay, implicating the higher-up official of the Department, to a still more startling climax.

There were more rumors and report n circulation about the prospective witone was in the dark as to the exact plans of the counsel to the Committee, there was a general and confident exofficials of the Department would at last which has been given during the past the universal system of blackmail and

The absorbing interest which is no aken by the public in the proceedings

this morning by the crowds which sough

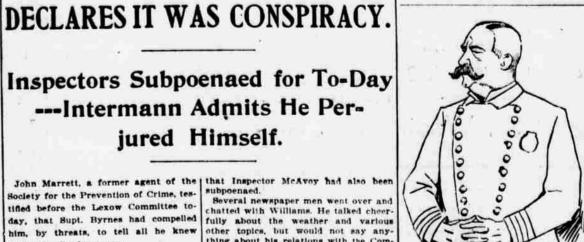

Later it was learned that Inspector

He had not appeared in the room, how-ever, up to a late hour.

chatted with Williams. He talked cheer-fully about the weather and various topics, but would not say anything about his relations with the Committee, except to admit that he at-

Several newspaper men went over and Williams Excused.

"In a moment," replied the chief coun-sel, and at the same time one of the at-tendants of the Committee went over and whispered to Inspector Williams.

INSPECTOR WILLIAM W. M'LAUGHLIN.

tended in obedience to a suppoena. Capt. George Washburn came in at the same time and took a seat next to the Inspector, and they were the centre of observation.

Capt. Allaire Also on Hand.

Several witnesses who are members of the Steamboat Squad were sworn yesterday, but not examined. They were in attendance again this morning. Among them was Capt, Anthony Allaire, who is at present in charge of the Squad, and who was directly implicated in the handling of blackmail money by the testimony of yesterday's witnesses. It was expected that he would be one of the

FELLOWS AND GOFF CONFER

The World."

Foglia spent an apparently peaceful night in a cell in the basement at Police Headquarters. His failer reports that he slept soundly. He was awakened at 6.20 this morning. He was fatigued from his long journey, and expressed himself as confident of acquittal of the terrible crime of which he is suspected.

The Sergeant-at-Arms Schram, for Chairman Lexow had given strict orders last night, at Mr. Goff's request, that only a first last Mr. Goff's request, that he would be one of the carly witnesses.

There were also rumors that Capt. Schmittberger, Police Justice Voorhis and Capt. Strauss would be called upon and Capt. Strauss would be called upon to those who had subpoenas or special permission from the Committee should be allowed inside the railing. The dense crowd which packed the room yester-day interfered quite seriously with his district.

The first incident of the day to attract attention was the arrival of Inspector Alexander S. Williams in the full uniform of his rank. He showed a subpoena to the doorkeeper, Officer Smith, who respectfully allowed his superior to pass.

The Inspector showed no signs of anxiety or nervousness, but quietly went over into the corner, and drawing out a newspaper from his pocket put on his eyeglasses and began to read industriously.

Tooss, Creeden and Westers in Just before in circles williams.

Chairman Lexow came in just before in just before in colock and passed Inspector Williams.

The lex ow Didn't Know Williams.

Chairman Lexow came in just before in colock and passed Inspector Williams in the committee, and hat, shook hands with several of the captains seated about him and the captain seated about him and never before attended a hearing of the Committee, and the captains seated about him and the captains seated about him and never before attended a hearing of the Committee, and the captains seated about him and never before attended a hearing of the Committee, and the respublican State Committee and Clerk of the State Senate.

Goff and Feilows Consult.

When Mr. Goff arrived Ccl. Fellows sought him out, and they had a long whispered conversation, in which both were committee bearing the manner and gestures.

Capt. O'Connor, of the Second President of the Committee bearing the passed in the array of police officials present, and they were joined shortly afterwards by Capts. McCallagh, Murphy and Pastor Guiteridge, of Newark and Law bear the hearings of the Committee and Clerk of the State Senate.

When Mr. Goff arrived Ccl. Fellows sought him out, and they had a long wellow the hearing of the committee and clerk of the State Senate.

When Mr. Goff and Fellows Consult.

When Mr. Goff and Fellows Consult.

When

Cross, Creeden and Westervelt.

Ex-Capt. Cross and Capt. Westervelt were in citizens' dress. They greeted inspector Williams effusively and Cross sat down and chatted gayly with his former superior. Not long afterwards Capt. Creeden, also in citizen's dress, wandered in and as he passed Inspector oined the group at the counsels' table, not there was evidently a serious mat-er under discussion. It was then after 11.30, and every one in the crowded room was on tiptoe with

The next arrival of note was Capt. Strauss, who was put on the stand yesterday, but soon dismissed and told to be on hand this morning with his wife. Mre. Strauss, a stout woman with dark brown hair, wearing a broad brimmed felt hat surmounted with a bunch of nedding black plumes, accompanied her husband. Dr. Wright, who had promised to consult and report upon the condition of Jonn T. Martin, formerly dispenser of patronage for ex-Police Commissioner Voorhis, was also on hand. Senator Mullen, of Watertown, was a visitor, and guest of the Committee, tors O'Connor and Pound had meanwhile joined the Committee. Williams Excused.

PRICE ONE CENT.

MAY STILL BE A RACE

Ex-Commodore Smith Intimates that There Is Yet Hope

Dunraven Will Send a New Challenge for the Cup if Permitted.

N. Y. Y. C. Committee Will Com sider Terms Outlined by Cable.

LONDON, Dec. 19 .-- In an interwith Richard Grant, Secretary of the Royal Yacht Squadron, he says: "I conferred with Lord Dunraven Sha morning in regard to the challe the America's Cup. He decided the New York Yacht Club

"Accordingly, I have just cable latter, stating the conditions which we will race. If the cor are accepted, we will challenge cup again."

Mr. Grant, at the request of Dunraven, came from Cowes to yesterday evening. During the of the evening Mr. Grant saw the of Wales, who considered the An Cup Committee's cablegram of M At 11 o'clock to-day Mr. half an hour's conference with raven at the latter's

TO BE SHOT WITHOUT TRIAL

tionist Will Meet This Pr

NUEVA LAREDO, Mexico, Dec. brought here, and it is u he will be taken out and the formality of a trial.
It is claimed that his guilt we CHEFOO, Dec. 19.-An uneasy of the Chinese soldiers against the residents in the event of the Japanese forces succeeding in capturing West. It is reported here that the Chinese authorities have refused to sian Marines.

Chinese authorities have refused by grant the passports asked for by the Russian marines intended to be sent to Pekin in order to guard the Legation of Cruiser Detroit's Commander Will Meet the Pope.

ROME, Dec. 19.—The commander of the United States cruiser Detroit has concluded arrangements for landing the Columbian exhibits, and has returned to Naples, where the warship is lying. company the returned exhibits to Rome, after which he will be received in audience by the Pope.

Concession to Build Ratirond Up Jungfrau Mountain.

BERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 19.-The Council of State has granted the cor Jungfrau Mountain. The capital has been subscribed in America and in Eng-

The Canr, It Is Reported, Will Do Away with the Secret Police. LONDON, Dec. 18.—The correspondent of the Chronicle at St. Petersburg tale-graphs that the Czar will probably cause in Russia, and abolish the secret pol

A serious row occurred at the election dirities primaries at 114 West Fifty-third street on the evening of Dec. 11. John Chariton, Janiter, was assaulted in the hallway, and is in his slightly paralyzed. He will recover. The side were not informed until yesterday, when Dr. B. S. Watson, of 165 West Forsy-ascenth street. Porty-seventh street. Special Detective The son arreated Charles Healey, a saloon-treeo. The Seventh avenue. Justice Meade of the hearing until to-morrow, holding Healey is bonds of $5,000.

Weather Porecast. The weather forecast for the 36 hours